

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair stations use public airwaves free of charge, and are required by law to serve the public interest. One-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal process should not be automatic - that is the reason for oversight. Thank you.
